The bed belongs to me – it was a present from a grateful lover. He was very, very rich; in fact, if I told you his name, you probably wouldn't believe me. He's a very prominent member of society. We had many crazy adventures on that bed – we both did judo, and used to have bouts in the bedroom which invariably ended up with me immobile on the bed while he had his wicked way with me. Not that I objected, of course – he had a fucking beautiful cock. ♣
